Built in 1925 by Lou and Winnie Bowman after returning from Detroit where they helped build the Detroit Zoo. Originally a general store and gas station, the couple lived upstairs. The Bowman's ran the store through 1956 although he was legally blind from the late 1930's. Lou also built the home behind Club 21 after retiring. Lou Bowman died in 1967 at age 83 and was buried in Mt Pleasant Cemetery with Winnie, who had died in 1960 at the age of 74.
